

Dr. Lindsay Marie Smith Guest Artist

Dr. Lindsay Marie Smith has been playing horn since 5th grade. She began performing with Clear Lake Symphony in 6th grade and in 8th grade, she performed a solo as the Honorable Mention Winner in the Junior Division Youth Concerto Competition. Dr. Smith has been a soloist with Pasadena Philharmonic and the Abilene Christian University Orchestra. While pursuing her Master's degree, she performed at the International Horn Society Convention as the Winner of the International Horn Quartet Competition.

Dr. Smith holds degrees in music education from Abilene Christian University, Master of Music in Horn Performance from Baylor University, and her Doctorate of Musical Arts degree from Texas Tech University. Horn teachers include Bruce Henniss, Roger Kaza, Jason Missal, Jeffrey Powers, and Christopher Smith, as well continued support from her dad, Michael Smith. She has played with the Gilbert and Sullivan Society of Houston, Lubbock Symphony, Amarillo Symphony, Abilene Philharmonic, and Waco Symphony. Currently she serves as Principal Horn in the Clear Lake Symphony and Pasadena Philharmonic Orchestra. Dr. Smith is the Head Band Director at Sharpstown International School where she teaches 6th through 12th grade band.